Junior League of the Lehigh Valley to Host Leadership in Action Panel Event on November 20, 2024

Local Leaders to Discuss Women's Leadership and Empowerment to Inspire Meaningful Community Impact

Bethlehem, PA, October 16, 2024 – The Junior League of the Lehigh Valley (JLLVPA) is pleased to announce Leadership in Action, a panel discussion on women's leadership and empowerment, Wednesday, November 20, from 7:00-9:00 p.m. at Venture X in Bethlehem. This event will feature local women who have taken on leadership roles in government, philanthropy, and higher education.

The panel will explore how women, through their unique paths and leadership roles, can create a ripple effect of positive change by supporting and empowering one another. We'll highlight how meaningful community impact often begins with small, accessible actions. By sharing experiences of embracing opportunities, finding support, and leading with courage, we aim to inspire attendees to get involved and support change in their local communities.

This event is free and open to the public, with a suggested donation to JLLVPA. To register, please visit <https://lehighvalley.jl.org/events/register-leadership-in-action/>.
